

Get out of my business of how and where I choose to listen to the radio and where I get my information. I should have the freedom to choose not be told who can provide me with information. Last time I checked no one controlled the weather and traffic is not a proprietary nor sponsored event.